Frequently Asked Questions

a) I am performing a private puja at my home/in the Temple. How much dakshina should I be giving?

The suggested minimum dakshina for the Priest is 35% of the Temple fee (see accompanying chart of fee schedule for poojas). Many devotees give up to 100% of fees to show their gratitude and appreciation for the services rendered.

b) For a private puja I would like make a donation to the Temple above the regular fee charged by the temple. How much dakshina should I be giving to the priest?

Thank you for making a donation to the Temple. The suggested minimum dakshina for the Priest is 35% of the Temple fee (see accompanying chart of fee schedule for poojas). Many devotees give up to 100% of fees to show their gratitude and appreciation for the services rendered

c) I have already donated $1000 or more to the Temple this year. Do I still need to pay for priestly services?

If you do not have a Benefactor Privileges Certificate, please request one from finance@histemplemn.org. With the certificate you will be exempt from paying Temple fee for the pooja. However, the suggested minimum dakshina for the Priest is still 35% of the expected Temple fee (see accompanying chart of fee schedule for poojas). You are always welcome to give more dakshina for gratitude and appreciation for the services rendered.

a) I am attending a Temple-conducted pooja? Is there an expectation of dakshina to the priest?

While minimum dakshina is not applicable to regular weekly and monthly poojas conducted inside the Temple, you are more than welcome to do so. Money put in arati plate does not go to the priest. If you would like to give dakshina, please place it in an envelope, write priest's name on it and either give it to him or place it in Hundi.

Membership

HCV encourages the Richmond community to become a member and enjoy being part of the Hindu Center family, and to feel pride in sharing in the resources and expenses of the center and temple. In the course of a year, lot of activities are held at the center and also expenses are incurred to run the religious and non-religious activities. It is a good feeling to know that one is sharing in this.

As a member you have the ability to participate in the decision-making process to run the Hindu Center. Members are also offered discounted rates for hall rental, library and other fees. Overall, benefits of having the membership are worth more than the dues paid for individual activities.

There are four levels of membership:

(a) Regular Membership: Open to all community members who subscribe to the objectives of the HCV. Regular members are eligible to be nominated to some roles in the Executive Committee. The Annual membership fee currently is $101 per calendar year for a family.

(b) Life Membership: The fee for Life Membership is $2,000 per person. Life Members are eligible to be nominated to voting positions in the Executive Committee. The spouse will become a life member for an additional $1.

(c) Corporate Membership: Members who have held Life Membership for at least three years can be nominated to become Corporate Members. Nominees will have provided substantial service to the Center, and be active participants in all HCV activities. Nominees will be on the ballot for election by the Corporate Body at its annual meeting. Nominees receiving at least 4/5 of the votes will become Corporate Members. Corporate Members are eligible to be nominated for all voting positions in the Executive Committee. Dues are $201 for a couple per calendar year.

(d) Honorary Membership: Conferred upon distinguished individuals over the age of 65, who have made special contributions to the HCV. For more details, contact Membership Committee.

Please contact membership@hinducenterofvirginia.org

Membership is due January 1, of each calendar year. Please make checks payable to "Hindu Center" and mail to Hindu Center of Virginia, ATTN: Membership Committee, 6051 Springfield Road, Glen Allen, VA 23060. To become a member, please fill the form at:

3. The temple donation for out-of-town visits (places outside a one and half hour commute) is $ 300 per day (computed from the time the priest leaves the temple). The dakshina amount is 20% of the total charges. Out-of-town visits are subject to the availability of priests.
4. For requests for priest's overnight stay for devotees within commuting distance add $ 100 to the total charges and $ 20 to the recommended dakshina. Priest's overnight stay is subject to the availability of priests.
